

A PERSONAL LETTER from SCOTT & CAROLYN BUSS

Concerning CONNECT "The Generations" Gathering

Memorial Day Weekend! May 28 - 30 (Fri. - Sun.)

A Big Hello to each one of you! Trust you and your family are doing well! We value our friendships dearly and are doing our best trying to figure out how we can better connect with all of you. Facebook and E-mails have been a great plus, now that we are learning more how to function step-by-step in this technological world. Thank you for your patience with us, as it has been a struggle at times to learn all of this in our busy on-going schedules.

Scott and I sense a big urgency in this kairos hour (crucial, yet exciting time that we all live) to gather people of all ages together - many of you are our close family and friends, whom we have known for a long or a short time; whereas others of you we have only recently met. And there may be some of you who have never met us before, but we will anticipate meeting you, as well. Every friendship has to start somewhere and at sometime.

This, however, is not about us, our music & worship school or our ministry. It is about you and your well-being, your families, your friends, and your relationshipsall of us walking forward stronger in the now and in the future!

Scott and I are stepping out in faith on behalf of all of the generations, the personal struggles you have carried and your relational challenges over the years, as you have seen the rudeness, hypocrisy, and difficult people in your families, schools, businesses and in your churches. This has taken its toll on many. Some have been devastated; others have felt greatly weakened or angry; and many have simply put all the confusion on a shelf and forced themselves to move on in spite of the craziness of it all. They've acted like all is ok, but in actuality; they've only managed to stuff it, not knowing how to deal with the messes! Finances, education; emotional, spiritual, mental and physical health; marriages, families, gifts and callings, ministries and jobs have suffered for thousands. Of course there are those of you who are doing great and all is well, but you have a concern for others who are trying to survive and to overcome. As we gather, there will be something for everyone!

Help us spread the word!!!! There is a desperate need out there - it's everywhere! It would require a sacrifice for all to attend, but it would be so worth it with a guarantee of 1) Lots of love and compassion 2) understanding of some of the why's 3) healing and reconciliation 4) monumental motivation to keep moving forward!

We want to give you a personal invitation to this special much needed gathering that we are hosting -

CONNECT "The Generations"
